DARIUS S. WAITT.

Resolutions Passed by the Stewards of Edenton Street Church Upon His Death.

Darius S. Waitt was born in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, February 13th, 1850, and died in the city of Raleigh Friday morning, June 12th, 1891.

Bro. Waitt came to Raleigh in the year 1860, and, with one of his sisters, at once joined this Sunday School. In early life he connected himself with this church, and thus being fully identified with the church and Sunday School he became an active co-laborer in both.

He was elected Steward of the church October 19th, 1880, and continued in that office until the present year, when he felt impelled to relinquish it and voluntarily retired. This severance of his official relation to the church did not, however, affect his zeal in its cause, as was manifested by his continued activity in every good work which his hands found to do, until prostrated by disease.

For a number of years Bro. Waitt was a teacher in this school, and he was an intelligent student of the Bible, and "apt to teach;" he faithfully imparted to his scholars the truths which he himself had learned. There are some with us to-day, perhaps, who are enjoying the benefits of his wise and pious counsel.

Bro. Waitt acceptably filled the office of Secretary of this School for several years and occupied this position to the date of his death, only retiring from its active duties when physical disability came upon him.

He held places of honor and trust in connection with the city of Raleigh, and benevolent orders, the most prominent of which was that of Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina, being the incumbent of that office at the date of his death.

Bro. Waitt has left his impress upon this community as a man of personal and moral integrity, and a public spirited citizen. He had a strict regard for truth and a keen perception of duty to his fellow man. He was just in his dealings with them, and in this he, as far as he possibly could, applied the principles of the golden rule.

He dispensed charity with a large hearted liberality according to his means, and was ever ready to perform deeds of benevolence and kindness when opportunity offered.

In his home life he was gentle and kind, and he has left to his family the sweet aroma of a pure Christian life and example.

RESOLVED, That, in the death of Bro. D. S. Waitt, this church and Sunday school have lost a faithful member and officer, society a useful and upright citizen, and his family a devoted and loving husband and father.

RESOLVED, That we commend his family to that God whom he served, and to whom he committed them just before his departure, and we pray that God's care may ever be over them and His blessings ever attend them, and that in Heaven they may meet again.

RESOLVED, That we will hold in affectionate remembrance the pleasant association we so long enjoyed with our departed brother and his faithful services as our collaborer.

RESOLVED, That the Secretary transmit a copy of this tribute with these resolutions to the widow of the deceased, and to the city papers with request to publish them.

Respectfully submitted,
J. H. CORDON,
D. W. BAIN,
J. G. BROWN.

Making Their Statements Before the Railroad Commissioners.

The Railroad Commissioners were all in their places yesterday and heard the statements as to the property of the several roads from President W. F. Kornegay, of the N. C., Pres. W. A. Last, and Treasurer J. M. Rose, of the C. F. and Y. V. and Mr. M. K. King, of the Norfolk and Southern. To-day President Warren G. Elliott, of the Wilmington and Weldon, and Mr. Noling of the Lynchburg and Durham Railroad will be heard.

Withdrawn From Private Sale.

As announced in our advertising columns to-day, the Idlewild lots are now withdrawn from private sale. There are only sixty five lots unsold. More than one hundred lots have been sold privately all around these sixty six, and we are assured that they have been sold only to desirable people. Now the company proposes to offer these lots all for sale on one day, Wednesday, July 8th, and at public auction. The lots will be sold without regard to list prices. Every lot offered is to be sold. As this is the first sale of this kind ever held in Raleigh, we hope our people will attend largely, and will invest liberally. There is no doubt that the property in and around Raleigh will bring good prices in the near future.
